

Hooe Parish Council Scheme of delegation.

The parish Councils scheme of delegation is an essential policy to enable the council to function efficiently and effectively. Without this every decision would have to be taken by Full Council. Decision making powers are given to committees and officers to enable the council to react to circumstances and operate effectively.

Powers cannot be given to individual councillors (as the council is a corporate body in law) or working parties.

This Scheme of Delegation authorises the Proper Officer and Responsible Financial Officer (which is one and the same person), Committees and Sub-committees to act with delegated authority in the specific circumstances detailed. This shall be subject to observing decisions of the council on matters of policy and principle and working in accordance with the approved Terms of Reference.

Applicable statute Local Govt Act 1972 Section 101, 117 Local Government Act 1972 schedule 12a (part 1) Local Government Act 1972 s102 Data Protection Act 1998 Public Bodies (Admission to Meetings Act) 1960 s2

This scheme does not delegate any matter reserved by law or which, by law, may not be delegated to a councillor and/or an officer.

All delegated functions shall be deemed to be exercised on behalf of and in the name of the council.

The legal basis of the delegation conferred by the document is contained in the following provisions of the Local Government Act 1972: 'S. 101 Arrangements for discharge of function by local authorities

- (1) Subject to any express provision contained in this Act or any Act passed after this Act, a local authority may arrange for the discharge of any of their functions:
 - a. by a committee, a sub-committee or an officer of the authority, or
 - b. by any other local authority'

Delegation to Officers.

The following matters are delegated to the Council's Officer(s) to make decisions on behalf of the Council. These decisions must be exercised in accordance with the law, the Council's Standing Orders and Financial Regulations and any approved policy framework and budget.

Full Council may at any time, following resolution, revoke any delegated authority.

Officers may decide not to exercise delegated responsibilities and may instead make a recommendation to a committee or Full Council. Similarly, where Officers have no delegated power to make a decision they report the matter to Committee or Full Council for a decision.
